

JOIN OUR HERTFORDSHIRE POLICING FAMILY

Get on the job training to become a police officer while gaining a fully funded degree or diploma, with training delivered in partnership with Anglia Ruskin University (ARU).

You can earn while you learn!

A starting salary of £24,500 plus
£2,500 regional allowance.

SCAN ME

hertspoliceuk/careers
positiveaction@herts.police.uk

 @hertspolice

 /hertspolice

 hertspolice

HERTFORDSHIRE

CONSTABULARY

Pre[✓]vention First

WE ARE RECRUITING INDIVIDUALS WITH PASSION AND DRIVE

It's a great career with so many benefits.

There are two entry routes to become a police officer:

- Police Constable Degree Apprenticeship (PCDA)

Join as a police officer and achieve a BSc (Hons) degree in Professional Policing Practice. This is a three-year, work-based, practical and vocational degree;

- Degree Holder Entry Programme (DHEP)

Aimed at those who have a degree in any subject. In your first two years, you will achieve a Graduate Diploma in Professional Policing Practice whilst you train as a police officer; or Through our 'Positive Action' scheme, Hertfordshire Constabulary is committed to building relationships with under-represented groups and encouraging them to join our policing family.

We're also recruiting PCSOs, emergency call handlers and other staff roles. Check out our latest vacancies herts.police.uk/careers

SCAN ME

 @hertspolice

 /hertspolice

 hertspolice

HERTFORDSHIRE

CONSTABULARY

hertspoliceuk/careers
positiveaction@herts.police.uk

Prevention First